
Privacy Policy of ABC Hosting LTD (CBA.pl) and associated servicesI. PREAMBLE

The following document describes general rules of collecting and usage of personal data provided by our Users and Guests, as part of using our services. As a company, we would like to be sure that our Customers and Guests fully understand, on what terms we store and process the entrusted personal data.

ABC Hosting Ltd fully respects the privacy rights of its Customers and Guests. All entrusted personal data is treated as confidential. The following Privacy Policy applies only to the www.cba.pl page and associated services within its operating range. We do not collect any personal data about our Guests, except for the situation, when Guests provide us such data from their own initiative and other exceptions, which are described further in this document.

II. SHARING PERSONAL DATA

ABC Hosting LTD (from now on: CBA.pl) do not sell nor share any Users' personal data to the third parties, excluding situations, where it is absolutely necessary for providing the requested service properly. Purposes, range of shared data and entities to which this data is shared, are as follows:

1. Payment services:

CBA.pl, for Customers' convenience, offers dedicated payment systems, which are services provided by third party companies: PayPro SA, PayPal Inc., Paymentwall Inc. and Dotpay Sp. z o.o.

CBA.pl ensures, that Customers' personal data is being shared only to a minimum extent, essential to provide the service. This data includes: first name, last name, address, e-mail address, phone number; name, tax exempt number and address of the company (if profile type is „company“). This data is being used only for the payment process purposes.

2. Domain services:

Registration and maintenance of domains are external services. Polish domains are registered and maintained via NASK (Polish National Domain Registry), whilst other domains via Internet Domain Service BS Corp.

Due to how the domain services work, Customers' personal data, which are being shared to the entities above, are being used by them to register Users into the appropriate domain registry as owners of specific domain names. This data is being shared only to a minimum extent, essential to provide the service properly. This data includes: first name, last name, address, e-mail address, phone number; name, tax exempt number and address of the company (if profile type is „company“). The data is being used only for the payment process purposes.

III. RANGE OF COLLECTED PERSONAL DATA

We have built our webpage. in a way that none of our Guests have to provide any personal information or data to have the direct access.

Usage of our free variants of services does not require providing complete personal information, except for e-mail address, which is necessary to create and verify an account on the CBA.pl page.

Users of paid services during account registration, are entrusting CBA.pl the following personal data: first name, last name, address, e-mail address, phone number; name, address and tax exempt number (if profile type is „company”). ABC Hosting LTD, #7B Neal Pen Road, Belize City, Belize; is the administrator of this data. Except for that, which results from the telecommunications law regulations, additional data such as: IP addresses, personal data, payment history, history of changes on Users’ accounts is being collected and stored in a secure way. This data is protected and is not used under any circumstances, except for the situation when the law is obligating us to share it (in example, Police request).

Future and current Customers can be sure, that the data they provided (or any information that could identify them) is being processed only for the proper functioning of the website and associated services, and is properly protected.

IV. MODIFYING AND DELETING USERS DATA

Each User has right to view, modify and delete his data. Request to delete data which is needed to provide the service, is equal to termination of the contract for the provision of such services, if this is applicable.

V. COOKIES

CBA.pl is using Cookies to deliver the best using experience. These files help to remember the logged session and to save the personal preferences when using the website.

User, by using CBA.pl services without blocking Cookies in his own browser, automatically agrees to use them.

VI. SAFETY OF USERS DATA

CBA.pl has all the necessary security measures to prevent the leakage, improper use or altering entrusted data. When User is placing order online, logging in or going through sensitive components of the user panel, his data – including credit card number, is being protected by the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology. It is based on encrypting all the data being sent between the Customer and server, which secures data even in case of interception. Our servers are secured towards unauthorized access and viruses using dedicated, specialistic software tools and multi-level servers access systems.

CBA.pl (ABC Hosting LTD) reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy by publishing these changes on the website and informing its Customers via proper information channels.
